CENTURION

South Windsor High School

South Windsor, CT

I hope the day will be a lighter highway,

For friends are found on every road;

Can you ever think of any better way

For the lost and weary travelers to go?

*Making friends
for the world to see*

Let the people know you got what you need;

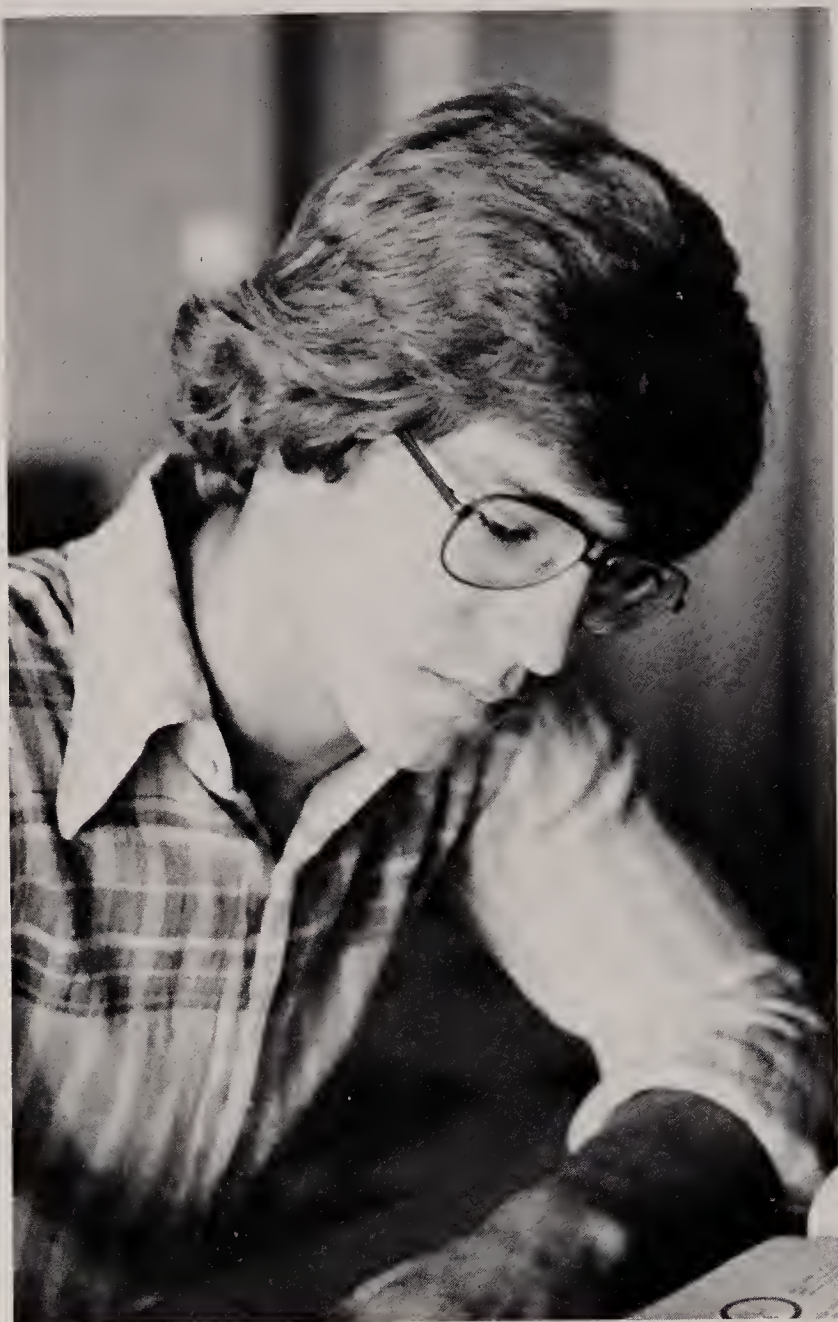

*With a friend at hand
you will see the light . . .*

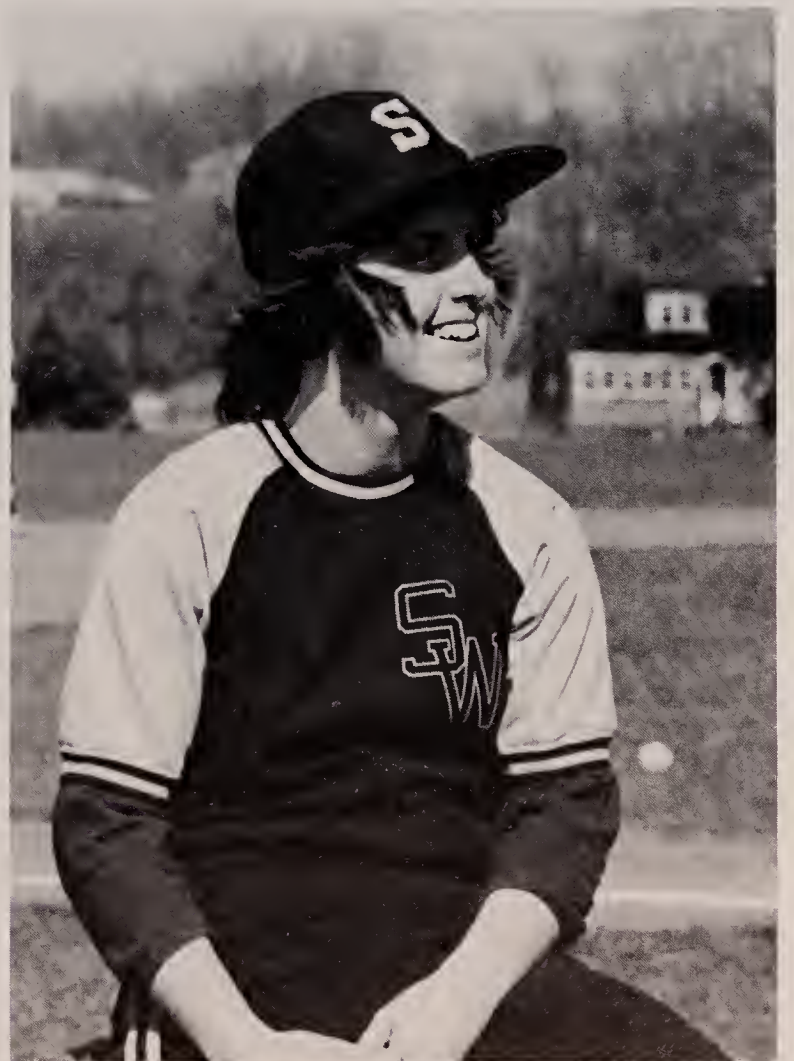

*If your friends are there,
then everything is all right.*

*It seems to me a crime
that we should age,*

These fragile times should never slip us by;

A time you never can or shall erase,

As friends together watch their childhood fly.

*Making friends
for the world to see*

*Let the people know
you got what you need;*

*With a friend at hand
you will see the light . . .*

1979 Junior Prom Queen and Court: Donna Harris, Sarah Griffiths, Lynda Mawhinney, Michele Lenkeit, Margo-Ann Duclos, and Lori Pelikan.

If your friends are there, then everything is all right.

FACULTY

IN APPRECIATION . . .

We the Class of 1980, in sincere appreciation of her understanding and encouragement, dedicate our yearbook to Miss Sharon Moran. She has been an inspiration to us all, always lending a helping hand. To her, "self" is an unknown word. As a teacher, her dedication towards education is unsurpassed. As a person, her friendship is treasured. It is with gratitude that the Class of 1980 thanks Miss Moran for being a fine teacher, a special friend, and an outstanding person.

SENIOR DRESS-UP DAY

'Twas four days before Christmas at South Windsor High.
 Not a sound could be heard, not even a sigh.
 It all had begun in its usual way,
 except that all thoughts were on Christmas day.
 Saint Plunkett was out running the show,
 as he sat and admired the lack of new snow.
 But the spirit was there, Mr. Rioux did say,
 his Outing Club trips were all under way.
 On stage Mr. Brown has opened the curtain.
 His first winter production would be there for certain.
 In the yearbook room, there was spirit no doubt.
 Ms. Sjoblad put down the Christmas layout.
 With greeting cards NHS got into the act,
 with a mouse on skis, as a matter of fact.
 And if you wanted more there was chipmunk's delight,
 but those little silver walnuts weren't easy to bite.
 The art room was different in its own little way.
 Mrs. Kinsloe made some ornaments with her very own clay.
 The music choral groups had reached for each note
 As Ms. Radziewicz replied, and on this I do quote.
 "Sing real good is my only request!"
 Her Christmas concert was only the best!
 The band played some music with a lot of pizzazz.
 For some look-a-like to Santa Claus they called Mr. Lazz.
 The excitement at Wapping reached a great height,
 as they tried to spray paint Mr. Cloutman's beard white.
 They decided to stop, not getting too far.
 His ho, ho, ho's weren't up to par.
 When Mr. White was asked what he wanted this year, he said, "You know — protons, neutrons, some chemistry gear."
 Suddenly a man appeared out of no apparent sight
 with a bright red suit, and a beard all white.
 As he walked he kept bouncing, I made my best bet.
 It had to be Santa Claus!
 No, it's Mr. Myette!
 Coach Sharos was asked if he wanted the same.
 This year his present was the big soccer game.
 Mr. Bordonaro sang Christmas songs to all kinds of folks, but at least it was better than listening to his jokes.
 When Mrs. Bickford was asked if she'd go visit her kin,
 She said she'd rather stay home with her own Kelly Lynn.
 Well, Christmas is coming, the biggest birthday they say.
 The Senior Class President was born on that day.
 And so the season is here, just as the announcements have been,
 And the Christmas poet strikes again!

— Bill Morrisette

*If the hands of time
were hands that I could hold,*

I'd keep them warm and in my hands they'd not turn cold.

Hand in hand we'd choose the moments that should last.

The lovely moments that should have no future and no past.

THERE'S MORE TO A GOLD JACKET THAN MEETS THE EYE.

It's a symbol of achievement. When you see it, you know you're working with a trained real estate professional. That Gold Jacket means the wearer has knowledge in everything from showing houses to real estate rules and regulations. So, for your real estate needs, call CENTURY 21®. Our Gold Jacket is a lot more than just gold.
